5. The Legal Sharia guardian (Wali) must be in the following order of priority: The father, the paternal grandfather, the full brother, the bride's son, and so on. It is mandatory that all of them are adult male Muslims. In case of no legal Sharia guardian, the Imam of Lewisham Islamic Centre will assume the position of the Wali (after filling the application form of appointing the Imam of Lewisham Islamic Centre as the Wali).
6. If the Bride or the Bridegroom is under the age of 21, LIC requires approval from the parents or guardians regardless of whether they are Muslim or not.
7. The Sharia permits non-Muslim females from Christian or Jewish backgrounds to marry a Muslim man, however they must have approval from their male guardian (Wali) and family.

A document of proof could be a divorce certificate from a Muslim country, or an Islamic centre/organisation. In absence of such, a letter of divorce from her previous husband with two Muslim witnesses would suffice. In this circumstance, we must be provided with the contact details of the previous husband for our own verification. A new marriage ceremony can only be performed after three menstrual cycles since the date of divorce, which approximates to three months, during which no marital relations must have taken place.

10. Your application will be processed and the necessary enquiries will be made. Upon approval, the applicant will be contacted to arrange nikah appointment. In cases where the application is rejected, the applicant will be notified and informed of the reasons of rejection.
